

Acadiana Women's Health Welcomes New OB-GYN

Dr. Erin Bouillion Hemsell, a Judice native, is excited to return home to help care for Acadiana women

LAFAYETTE, La. – Acadiana Women's Health Group recently welcomed Dr. Erin Bouillion Hemsell, OB-GYN, to its team of physicians.

A native of Judice, Dr. Hemsell said she is excited to return to practice in Acadiana.

"This is my home. I have an inherent understanding of the people, the cultures here and the unique health challenges they face," she explained. "I look forward to helping Acadiana women reach their best potential for a healthy, active life."

Dr. Hemsell graduated magna cum laude from UL Lafayette in 2005 with a degree in biology. She earned a medical doctorate in 2009 from LSU Health Sciences Center in Shreveport before completing a residency in obstetrics and gynecology in June at University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio.

Dr. Truman Hawes, OB-GYN, with Acadiana Women's Health Group, said Dr. Hemsell "is a great addition to our team of specialists, and we are proud to welcome her into our group."

Acadiana Women's Health Group, located on the Women's & Children's Hospital campus, is comprised of seven OB-GYNs and two nurse practitioners with more than 180 years of combined experience. In addition to traditional obstetric and gynecological services, the group provides minimally invasive laparoscopic hysterectomy, ultrasound, bone density testing, laser services for hair removal and skin rejuvenation and tattoo removal.

During her academic career, Dr. Hemsell earned several accolades, including the prestigious Ronald B. George Scholars in Medicine Award and the Nathan Bernstein Scholarship Award for Academic Excellence. Dr. Hemsell is a member of the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists as well as the Louisiana State Medical Society.

"We are thrilled to add Dr. Hemsell to our team," said Dr. Mika King, OB-GYN, with Acadiana Women's Health Group. "She will be an invaluable member of our practice, allowing us to continue to provide the highest quality of care to our patients."

Acadiana Women's Health Group is located at 4640 Ambassador Caffery Parkway, Lafayette, LA 70508. Call 337-984-1050 today for more information or to schedule an appointment.

About Women's & Children's Hospital

Founded in 1983, Women's & Children's Hospital, a campus of The Regional Medical Center of Acadiana, continues its tradition of providing specialized healthcare services for women and children. Women's & Children's Hospital is the second largest obstetrics hospital in the state with an array of women's services including digital mammography, breast-dedicated MRI, fertility, lactation support and urogynecology. The facility includes the Kids ER – a Pediatric Emergency Department staffed 24/7 by Board-Certified Pediatricians, Acadiana's only Level III Regional Neonatal Intensive Care Unit, the region's only Pediatric Intensive Care Unit, a women and children-dedicated Sleep Center and various pediatric subspecialties.
